GENERAL MANAGER REPORT

In general taking the role of General Manager of SAAS has been a very challenging one. As an organisation there has been little change or improvement over the last 20 years as the organisation has operated on a subsistence level with resourcing at a bare minimum. This has accordingly created a great deal of antiquation which will take a great deal of effort and resourcing to update many of the processes that are literally decades behind. The process has also focused on providing full flexibility to school needs with not much concern given to the overall competitions hence there has been little consistency and accordingly features that are part of most sporting competitions, such as Premiership Tables and Finals, have hardly featured in the SAAS competitions whatsoever.

With a completion of a strategic plan SAAS in the near future there needs to be a focus on better resourcing itself as an organisation and enhancement its processes and structures to create more consistent and meaningful competitions that will better service its member schools in the future.

SAAS is an important organisation with a very healthy position in regards to participation and delivering good sporting opportunities to its member schools. Its programs are enormous with significant diversity and its member schools provide high quality venues and coaching which all members should be very proud. A great deal of credit must go to the staff in the schools that coordinate these programs.

COMMUNICATION

The Communication platforms of SAAS are quite antiquated so accordingly an overhaul has occurred in 2017 which has included a complete re-structure of the website and accordingly moving away from faxing and emailing documents and storing these on the website thereby making the information much more accessible to everyone.

Social media accounts have been started for the first time also including Facebook and YouTube but more resourcing will be need to make these more functional.

Fixtures are on of the largest parts of the role of SAAS and these in the past have been told in a very rudimentary fashion. Accordingly SAAS has invested in SportsTG software to begin being used in 2018 which will significantly increase the capability and the visibility of fixtures.

POLICY

The Policy of SAAS has lacked depth and more work will be needed over the next three years to create more of the policy needed in conducting these type of sporting competitions. In general many of the rules for the sports (the bylaws) have large gaps and accordingly many of the weekly competitions are conducted in different formats obviously creating inconsistency.

The Gosse Medal was resurrected in 2017 after an absence of more than 45 years which awards the Best and Fairest Player in the Open Australian Rules Football competition. Two medals were awarded at a function hosted by Prince Alfred College, the Gosse Medal, which is the Best and Fairest Player in the Open A1 competition and a Best and Fairest medal was also awarded for the Open A2 competition. The 2016 Financial Report for the Sports Association for Adelaide Schools is enclosed.

As per the constitution the General Manager of Executive Officer is the Treasurer of the organisation.

The procedure for 2016 was to enter all the debits and credits for the Association Financials into a cash book and the receipts, cheque book, statements and cash book were passed to the auditor to prepare the financial statements.

As of January 2017 the financial accounts for the Sports Association for Adelaide Schools has been changed from cash accounting to accrued accounting and financial software (MYOB) has been purchased to manage the financial accounts rather than the manual cash book system utilised previously. All payments to employee and any third party will be paid in a manner which will meet all requirements with relevant regulatory bodies.

In regards to the financial management the basis in the past of the organisation has been to charge a membership fee per student that participates in each of the teams. In 2017 this was $10 and was raised to $11 for 2018. This fee essentially only pays for the current staff member and the overhead costs. Other costs for events or programs are conducted and charged back to the schools as per their participation (e.g. costs of the Achilles Cup are paid first and then each participating school is invoiced back) with a similar model operating for venue hire where required (only required for a few sports as most venues are provided by the respective schools). This is cost effective for members as only the real costs are charged back and provides an efficient model. However it hasn't allowed for investment into the organisation beyond basic staffing levels.

In general the finances of the organisation have been conducted in a very lean model. Again this has provided a very cost effective service of the member schools however it has also meant that the resources have been lean and accordingly not possible to provide any type of service besides basic administrative duties. In building the organisations capability this will provide challenging as the only means of income currently is charging the members schools.

INDEPENDENT AUDIT REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of the Sports Association for Adelaide Schools Inc. (the entity) for the year ended 31st December 2017, being the Balance Sheet, Income Statement, Notes to the Accounts and the Statement by the Committee of Management. The Committee of Management of the entity is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the financial report and the information contained therein. In our opinion, the financial report presents fairly the financial position of the Sports Association for Adelaide Schools Inc. as at 31st December 2017 and the results of its operations for the year then ended and complies with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Report section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the report in Australia, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with that Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the financial statement which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statement is prepared to provide information to the Sports Association for Adelaide Schools Inc. As a result, the financial statement may not be suitable for another purpose.

Responsibilities of Management for the Report

Management is responsible for preparation and fair presentation of the report in accordance with the cash receipts and payments basis of accounting. This includes determining that the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the report in the circumstances, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the report, management is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this report. As part of an audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit.

We identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

When applicable we obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

Where appropriate we conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion.

Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.

We evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates, if any, and related disclosures made by management. We also evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the report, including the disclosures, and whether the report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We will, where appropriate, communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
